

My poster is a picture of a family. It is made of puzzle pieces, but it is broken because it is showing that the children are missing and so the family is not complete. I created my poster to show that the families that have lost their children are very sad and that all families and children should be together.

5th Grader-Gridley Elementary School