2016 Kansas’ Missing Children’s Day Poster Contest Winner

5th grader – O’Loughlin Elementary School

The hands reaching out are to show how friends and family want to reach out to the missing children. The rough moon shows how tough it is to not bind your kid. It also reminds parents and family that we are all under the same moon. The stars represent the missing children.